

WHY SHOULD WOMEN BE IN PARLIAMENT?

CULTURE

DOESN'T OUR CULTURE SAY WOMEN ARE NOT ALLOWED TO BE IN PARLIAMENT?

Women have already been elected - including as government ministers. Women were political decision makers even before colonisation.

CHURCH

DOESN'T THE BIBLE
SAY GOD CREATED MEN FIRST?

The Bible also talks about Esther, Deborah and Ruth who were all leaders.

The Bible tells us that women and men have been created equally.

DECISION-MAKING

AREN'T MEN
THE HEAD OF THE HOUSEHOLD?

However, women are often the financial managers of the household.

And we always value Mum's opinion.

REPRESENTATION

CAN'T MEN REPRESENT WOMEN?

Women and men have different needs, interests and priorities.

Women bring different perspectives to decision making because of their different experiences in life.

Men cannot always represent women.

EXPERIENCE

ARE WOMEN
CONFIDENT ENOUGH
YET? DO WOMEN
HAVE ENOUGH
EXPERIENCE?

Women are leaders.

They are doctors, pilots, secretaries-general, ambassadors, permanent secretaries. They are also leading in disciplined forces, including military, correctional services and police - as well as other male dominated areas in engineering and science.

They don't need confidence; they need men's support.
